Our Differentiators:

At JMA, over 90 percent of our program managers hold PMP certifications and we employ over 150 professionals, 15 percent of which hold security clearances. Over the years, we've won numerous accolades from INC. 500 & 5000, BE 100s, ATCA, FAA, and the U.S. Chamber of Commerce. Our key differentiators include:

- Diverse Agency Support: JMA supports the Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) and Department of State as a prime contractor. We manage over 20 prime contracts, over 50 subcontractors and roughly 10 independent contractors.
• Employee Retention: JMA is a top workplace in Washington, D.C. with employees in 12 other locations across the U.S. We are well-positioned to support both large and small scale programs and initiatives by providing highly skilled individuals to fulfill our customer's mission.
• Subject Matter Expertise: Our greatest asset is our people and we understand our customer's need to utilize the best in the industry. Our subject matter experts allow us to provide the right expertise and support at the right time and the right cost.
